

Community College Collaboration (C3)

A transfer experience that begins at community college and ends with a lifelong community at NC State.

If you have at least one full year of community college remaining and are in a university transfer degree program (AA/AS/AE/AATP), we encourage you to stop by to learn more about NC State's C3 program!

Date: Monday, February 17

Time: 11:00am-1:00pm

Location: Wayne Learning Center Atrium

Questions?

Contact Peyton Dawson at podawson@waynecc.edu

Am I a good fit for C3?

Admission is competitive, and we review many factors in selecting who to admit. Students must meet the following minimum requirements:

- Attending a partner community college
- Completed less than 30 credit hours of transferrable college work
- Minimum of one full year of community college remaining
- Low-to-moderate income household (<$110,00 annually)
- Resident of North Carolina
- Planning to earn an associate degree (AA/AS/AE/AATP)

Why choose C3?

C3 helps elevate your transfer experience through a network of support. To join C3 is to become part of our Pack family! Below are some benefits of participating in our program:

- Academic advising
- Online planning tools
- Networking opportunities
- Programs and events
- Guaranteed admission to NC State

Can't make it to the on-campus visit? Sign up for a virtual info session!

go.ncsu.edu/c3_info_sessions